

Established Synthetic Turf Business – Low Overheads, Strong Local Demand

Looking for a straightforward, owner-operated business with consistent demand and low overheads? This synthetic turf supply and installation business services Perth's northern suburbs and offers a practical opportunity for a hands-on buyer.

The business is primarily focused on residential installations, supported by repeat clients, referrals and online enquiries. Additional work is generated through insurance providers and some small commercial clients

Currently run as a small operation with minimal staff, the business offers flexibility and simplicity, making it well suited to an owner-operator or someone looking to build on an existing trade or landscaping business.

With a steady flow of work and clear opportunities to expand into council and commercial sectors, this business provides a solid base for continued growth.
