

Events Business - Busy & Profitable

Love working with people? You will love this B2B events business!

The business model has been refined over 2 years to drive consistent revenue with very low overheads. All procedures and processes already in place, enabling a new owner to step in and earn immediately. The business also features an established website, social media presence and marketing strategy in place to drive new customers.

The returning customers, along with the exceptional online reviews, are a true testament to their reputation and impeccable service/standards.

Best yet, hours of operation are extremely lifestyle friendly at 5 days a week (Monday to Friday), with meetings and events being held during 'office hours'. A rare find in the events industry!

The business would be a great fit for a buyer who has; great people skills, a desire to deliver high quality services, commitment to great customer service, the ability to exceed expectations, a positive attitude, a desire to build on an already outstanding reputation.

An owner-operator would have no trouble continuing the success of this business, the perfect scenario.
